The Door-Step. BY E. C. STEDMAN.

The conference meeting through at last, We boys around the vestry waterd To we the garls come tripping past, Like show blots willing to be mated,

Not braver he that leaps the walf, By level musket flushes litten, Than I, who stepped before them all, Who longed to see me get the mitten.

But no, she blushed and took my arm ! We let the old folks have the highway, and started toward the Maple Farm, Along a kind of lovers' by-way.

I can't remember what we said, 'Twas nothing worth a song or story; Yet the rude path by which we sped, Seemed all transformed and in a glory.

The anger was order beneath our feet. The moon was full, the fields were gleaming, By hood and tippet sheltered sweet, Her face with youth and health was beaming

The little hand outside her muff-O, eculptor, if you could but mould it-So lightly touched my jacket ouff, To keep it warm I had to hold it.

To have her with me there alone-'Twas love and fear and triumph blended, At just we reached the foot-worn stone, Where that delicious journey ended. The old folks, too, were almost home;

Her dimpled hand the latchet fingered, We heard the voices nearer come, Yet on the door-step still we lingured. She shook her ringlets from her hood,

And with a "Thank you, Ned," dissembled But yet I knew she understood With what a during wish I trembled. A cloud passed kindly overhead,

The moon was slyly peeping through it, Yet hid its face, as if it said, "Come, now or never! do it, do it." My lips till then had only known

The kies of mother and of sister; But somehow now upon her own Sweet, rosy darling mouth-I kissed her Perhaps 'twas boyish love, yet still,

O, listices woman, weary lover ! To feel once more that fresh, wild thrill, I'd give-but who can live youth over?

VARIETY.

LOVE-SICK .- " Och 1 a love-sick Hibernian, " what a recreation it is to be dying of It sets the heart aching so delicately there's no taking a wink of sleep for the pleasure of the pain."

DEAPPOINTED .- The most disappointed woman is the lady who had a lot of sarcasm for her sonin-law elect, and couldn't use it because the match was broken off on the day before that appointed for the wedding.

Irs Cost .- A lecturer estimates that it costs, under the most favorable efreumetances, $3,000 to raise a boy until he reaches the age of sixteen years. If these figures are approximately correct, the investment, in many instances, is a dead

AN ECSTATIC MOMENT.-He unblushingly says that it was one of the most ecstatic moments of his life when the doctor laid his hand upon his shoulder, and sadly whispered, "Your mother-in-law's voice is irretrievably gone. She will never speak again."

How HE FELT .- " I tell you," said a Wisconsin man to a neighbor next day after burying his wife, "when I came to get into bed, and lay thar, and not hearing Lucinda jawing around for an hour and a half, it just made me feel as if I'd moved into a strange country."

SET THE EXAMPLE .- Mither -- " Now, Jean, when the folks come to tea, mind ye divert them as muckle as ye can. And, Jean, when the cakes and the sick-like things are han'ed roand, be mannerly, and set the example by just sayin', . No, thank ye,' to it all."

Shrewd.-A lager beer house in Hudson county, N. J., was formerly a church. The shrewd Teuton who now keeps it was about to erase an inscription painted over the door, but on second thoughts he left the last line untouched. It is : " Let him who is athirst come."

SET BACK .- At a recent ten-party in the Highlands, a young man who had been relating his more than wonderful exploits in various parts of the globe, was not a little set back by the remark of an old traveler, "Young man, ain't you ashamed to talk so when there are older liars at

ONLY IN FUN .- A smart little boy in New Orleans was reproved by his mother for telling a fib. He insisted it was only in fun, but his pious mother told him he must ask Divine pardon. So the little boy knelt down and said: "Q. Lord forgive me. I wouldn't have done it, only I thought you could take a joke."

AFTER A WIFE .- A Cayuga county, N. Y. man sends the following advertisement to the Syracuse Journal: 47 Mr. Editor please publish that Wanted a young lady from the age of 18 to 22 who would like to younite her selfe in the locs of matrimonia I the writer of this am 22 years of age 5 feet in height in weight 135 of occupation farmer.

CERTAINLY .- A Western editor complacently remarks: "A persevering contributor to this journal, who properly writes only on one side of his paper, has furnished material for the editor to write his editorials on for the past six months -on the back side of said paper, furnished postage prepaid. If economy be virtue, we certainly always on hand.

Quick .- Mr. Post, a Wisconsin Christian, went to church the other morning, and found Mrs. Schlimgen in his pew. Mr. Post did not follow the plan of most weak-kneed Christians-take another seat and scowl at the woman through the sermon; he took Mrs. Schlimgen by the ear and yanked her out of that seat so quick it made every hair-pin in her chignon tremble.

How HE DID IT .- Russell, in his memoirs of Tom Moore, says: Tom being pressed as to how he got his living, made this frank avowal : "On Suaday I always dine with an old friend of mine, where I cat so much that it lasts me till Wednesday. Then I buy some cripe, which I hate like the very devil, and that makes me so sick that I can't eat anything till Sunday again." Science.—Boswell once asked Johnson if there was no possible circumstance under which suicide would be justifiable. "No," said Johnson. "Well," said Boswell, "suppose a man had been guilty of fraud, and that he was certain to be found out." "Why, then," was the reply, ' in that case let him go to some country where he is not known, and not to the devil, where he is known." WANTED "TATER."-At one of the hotels recently was a family traveling West from Vermont. The wife was continually badgering the husband for his method of doing this and that, evidently supposing that everybody else was noticing his unaristocratic ways. At the table she passed him the potatoes and he took off a small mountain, and in three minutes held his plate for more. She winked at him, but he was determined, and he shouted, " Elizabeth Jones, you may wink and blink all day, but I'm going to have some more tater or bust the bank!" He

hally favored in this way.—The District of Kons, on the leeward side of Hawaii, has long been famed as a place of resort for invaids with brenchital, or lung diseases. With its pure and mild atmosphere, with its absolute freedom from storms or high winds, with its porous soil which, with all its storms or high winds, with its perous soil which, with an in-rich vegetation, retains no dampness and yields no maisris, and with an unvarying temperature—that of the American or Southern European June—ALL THE YEAR ROUND, the climate of Kona is one of the healthiest and most luxurious on the globe.

The undersigned, at his house at Kaawaloa, a house unequaled in the district for size, cleanliness, commodiousness, and thoroughness of furnishing, is prepared to give boarders excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet, at excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet. At the low rate of $ 5.00 per week. There are fresh water baths on the premises, and fine sea hathing within a short distance. The steamer Klianea and the schooners Uliama and Prince, run regularly between Hopolula and the Kaawaloa landing. The undersigned employs no agents nor runners. His house speaks for itself upon inspection.
